Book helps you sift through online baby, maternity stuff

KARALEE MILLER
Knight Ridder

The Internet -- friend or foe?

Sometimes that depends on what you're looking for and how much patience you have. For example, if you're a busy mom (as though there's any other kind), and you want to find the best diaper out there, good luck sifting through all the results your online search engine yields.

Here to help you along the way is the new "thepurplebook baby" a comprehensive guide to online shopping for baby and maternity products. Whether it's baby necessities or frivolous fun gear, this easy-to-navigate guide has it covered. The book, by Hillary Mendelsohn, features more than 300 Web sites arranged alphabetically by URL and presented with a five- or six-line review, so you get a sense of what to expect before you log on. You'll also find icons that evaluate the service at the site, selection and usability.

Look for "thepurplebook baby," from Warner Books at $8.95, in stores and online.
